

Making language and culture education available to all Montanans

August 2023

Position Available: October - December 2023 with possibility of continuation through 2024

JOIN OUR TEAM!

Seeking Part-Time Spanish Coach for contracted teaching opportunity for youth and/or adult learners.

WLI-MT is a 501-C3, nonprofit organization based in Bozeman whose Mission is to make language & culture programming available to all Montanans.

We are seeking a Spanish Language & Culture Coach who is passionate about and committed to connecting with the community through language and culture education. Our Coaches include professional educators, MSU students, native speakers, and retired teachers, all with unique skills and teaching styles.

Description

WLI-MT's Language & Culture Coaches teach dynamic and fun classes with an expectation of staying in the target language 75-95% of class time. Our team utilizes the Communicative Language Teaching model and places an emphasis on language learning through student engagement in cultural activities and project-based learning. Lesson planning templates and guidance are available. However, we encourage our Coaches to teach subjects and topics about which they are passionate; for example, one Language Coach may focus primarily on art, while another focuses on music or sports.
